VARIOUS AND ALL ABOUT.

Rain, Rein, Reign—It's a spell, wakes no difference how you spell it.

Gone but not forgotten—Dr. Mel-dau's old Buick.

That new Oakland is some autogofast—and it does.

There seems to be a bad leak in the weather.

Dr. J. Henry Harms will preach at Mayer Memorial church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Dr. J. Henry Harms will preach at the Cannon Creek Mission church next Sabbath afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The greatest road smoother in the world is the split log drag. Drag the drag.

Mr. S. B. McCarley has moved into the house lately vacated by Mr. R. C. Hamilton in Harrington street.

Cotton is going to 20c. Some of us will see it, but most of us will only hear of it.

Monroe Jones is no believer in frills, for he chose a plain druk, which cost him $5 spot cash.

The Farmers' warehouse is considering plans for the building of another warehouse alongside the present building.

Mr. M. P. Lake on Wednesday was reported dead, but he is glad to let his friends know that the rumor was an error.

You won't need the wood or coal heater soon if the paper "heaters" now going through the mails continue to reach you.

The freshmen at the college have learned that there are some customs in college life that are even more radical than radical equations.

Unless there is police or other supervision of the high swinging and ocean waving at the park somebody's child is going to get seriously hurt. This is not a criticism, but a warning.

Bub Langford wore a little hat out of a barber shop the other night that made him look like Happy Hooligan. Bring it back, Bub, and get your own wash tub.

Mr. J. T. Hunter, the county reporter for cotton ginner, says that up to September 25 this year there had been ginned 7,746, against 5,095 for the same time last year.

The sermon at Unity next Sabbath afternoon will be addressed especially to the children. The subject will be "Three Phones." An invitation is extended to all to be present.

The great trouble about Bush river for navigation purposes is that there is not enough water in it. What a pity, and only three miles from the city.

It is rumored that Hon. Neal W. Workman will enter the race for the senate next summer. He made a fine race for the house last year and will make it interesting if he should enter for the senate.

The first trip of the trolley cars over the new Saluda-Newberry-Whitmire line was made yesterday. The cars were loaded down with passengers and merchandise and will no doubt prove a gold mine for the stock holders—Just a dream, that's all.

T. M. Sanders has some attractive specials for Saturday, and for that matter very attractive lines besides specials. Read his ad in this paper and then go to the store and be convinced.

Bro. Carson's thermometer has taken a jump.—Associate Reformed Presbyterian.

Drinking clear cool water, when you are so hot and thirsty that you can almost spit cotton, from a gourd, is one of the greatest joys of life. And if the said gourd is cracked a few inches on one side and sewed up with a white thread—well, this is nothing short of heavenly bliss.

Joe Flax, although somewhat dark complected, looked a little flaxen when he appeared in the recorder's court Monday morning for assault on another boy of his size. As he could not afford the luxury of an alienist to pass upon his sanity, his brain storm blew one dollar clear out of his pocket before he could blink.

Sara Lark, an old colored woman, aged about 90 years, fell out of her back door Wednesday night in Cannon-town and was so severely injured that she died about two hours later.

Many people in the upper counties will pass through the State of Newberry on their way to the fair in Columbia the last of this month.

Mr. R. E. Allen of the Chicora College for Women, Columbia, was in the city Thursday. It will be pleasing news to many Newberry people to know that he will teach a voice class in Newberry on Monday and Thursday of each week. Pupils enrolled with him will be enrolled as music pupils of the Chicora College for Women.

The handsome young man who called upon Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Devore a day or two ago, likes them so well, and they have so fallen in love with him, that he has decided to remain permanently with them. With the exception of being a little noisy at times, he will make quite an acceptable citizen.

After the 15th of October a hundred years' subscription to The Herald and News will cost you one hundred and fifty dollars. Better take it now while it can be had one year for $1.19. Make it a gift to some ex-Newberrian in another county or in a distant State. This would make a bright spot in his life twice every week for a whole year. Think of it.

In the old days, when the old street lamp post, with an imposing oil lamp, perched on the top, lighted the streets of the town, the merchants thought they had gone the limit when they advertised: "Hats, caps, boots and shoes." Now we have a brilliant electric light at every corner and please notice the full page advertisements in the local papers. Just a matter of more light on the subject of advertising.

Oyster Supper West End.

The West End Baraca class will serve a first-class oyster supper at the West End hall Saturday night, October 9. Will also serve ice cream and cake.

Music will be furnished by Wherry's orchestra. If you are out for a good time come over. If you are looking for a good supper come to us for it.

BOOSTERS CAMPAIGN.

No. 4 Class of O'Neill Street Sunday School Plans Big Boosters' Campaign.

Members of No. 4 Bible class of O'Neill Street Methodist church are planning to begin a campaign for new members, which opens with an interesting program on Sunday night, October 10. This program is composed exclusively of members of the class.

Following is the program: Song by congregation, "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Invocation by the pastor, Rev. Gobe Smith.

Song by class.

The history of the class, by H. G. Connelley, assistant secretary.

"No. 4 Leads and Others Follow," by Shelton Alewine, secretary.

Song by No. 4 quartet.

"Why I am Proud to Be a Member of No. 4," by W. F. Bouknight, president.

"What, How and When We Fight," by Horace Alewine.

Caught at Chappells.

Bennie Lark, a young negro charged with assault and battery with intent to kill, was arrested on Sunday at Chappells by Rural Policeman Major and taken to Dyson today for a preliminary hearing. Lark is charged with hitting Jesse Coats in the head with a rock some time last spring. He has been hiding out since.—Greenwood Daily Journal.

Church Notice.

Rev. E. C. Cronk, secretary of Lutheran layman's movement, will give his stereopticon lecture in the Pomaria Lutheran church Monday evening, October 11, at 7:30. A large congregation is expected. No admission fee will be charged, but an offering will be made.

The Bethlehem pastorate, will be well represented at the Federation of Young People, to be held at Newberry October 8-10. The delegates follow: St. Matthews, Misses Catherine Folk and Laura Suber and Mr. Edwin Hentz. Bethlehem, Misses Pearle Ballentine, Willeeze Bolnest and Olive Richardson. Pomaria, Misses Ida Mae Setzler, Eloise Hipp and Katy Wilson.

McIlwain-Lominack.

What was one of the most brilliant home weddings of the season occurred Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. McIlwain of Hodges, when Miss Ruby McIlwain became the bride of J. Forest Lominack.

The McIlwain home was beautiful in its decorations of white and green in the parlor, while the dominant color in the drawing room was yellow. The guests were received by Mrs. W. B. Nickles and Mrs. Lou McIlwain and were afterwards served with delightful fruit punch by Misses Pearle Nickles and Annie B. Lykes. The delicious refreshments which were served later in the afternoon were served duffet style.

Just before the ceremony, Miss Annie Bell Jordan played "Celestial Visions" and Mendelssohn's "Wedding March." Mrs. J. Frank Dusenberry sang "O Promise Me" and "Perfect Day."

The bridesmaids, who entered in the following order, were Misses Mary McKie and Carrie Pauline Still. The pages, Master James Dusenberry and Harold Cochran, who entered immediately after the bridesmaids, were clad in pure white. The bride entered with the groom and the ceremony was performed by the Presbyterian minister, Rev. Dallas.

The bride was attractively gowned in a blue traveling suit with hat and all accessories to match and carried an exquisite bouquet of roses and valley lilies.

About one hundred guests were present to witness the ceremony. The out of two guests were: Mrs. Lonnie Dickert, Mrs. Pope L. Buford, Misses Florie and Cora Lominack, Mr. Marion Summer of Newberry, Mr. Ernest McIlwain, a brother of the bride, of Clinton, Mrs. Dusenberry and little son of Ninety Six and Mrs. Link, Misses Reed and Cochran of Abbeville.

Mr. and Mrs. Lominack left on the evening train for Newberry, where Mr. Lominack has an interest in the firm of W. H. Lominack & Son.

Preparatory and Communion Services.

There are to be preparatory services at Mt. Tabor Lutheran church Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Immediately after these services a regular meeting of the council will be held. The Lord's supper is to be celebrated on Sunday morning, services beginning at 11 o'clock.

J. B. Harmon, Pastor.

SOCIAL.

A pleasant break to the dullness of the interval between the summer entertainments and the opening of all the winter clubs was the meeting of the Fortnightly club Tuesday morning at Mrs. C. A. Bowman's.

This little club is now in its fourteenth year and has lost only one member by death.

A number of most interesting current events were discussed by those present and several instructive articles read that will be very helpful to those who heard them for fall and winter. Social chat followed and then an appetizing luncheon was served.

The officers for the new season of the club are, Mrs. L. W. Floyd, president; Mrs. J. H. Harms, vice president, and Mrs. W. G. Houseal, secretary.

The Drayton Rutherford chapter, U. D. C., held a meeting on its regular day (the first Tuesday in the month) at the home of Mrs. Jno. M. Kinard.

This being the first meeting of the fall, quite a number were present and much business was transacted. Mrs. West, Mrs. McFall and Mrs. Carville were appointed delegates to the State convention at Aiken.

An interesting paper on "Differences Leading up to the War Between the States" was read by Mrs. W. H. Hunt and Mrs. Brown read Timre "Carolina." After this a delicious salad course was served.

Monday afternoon the Ladies of the Missionary society of the Lutheran church met at Mrs. Hipp's. The officers elected were, Mrs. Edwin B. Setzler, president; Mrs. E. Hugh Summer, secretary, and Mrs. John W. Kibler, treasurer.

The young people of the church will hold a convention from Friday until Monday. This meeting was discussed and plans for it perfected.

Mrs. Gilder, Mrs. Fant and their guest, Mrs. Arnold, motored to Whitmire Sunday and visited Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Fant. Returning, they brought with them as a guest Miss Lucy Metts.

Robert Pool has been ill for over a week and is still confined to the house.

The Parent-Teacher association of Speers Street school did not hold their meeting Wednesday, as it was feared the inclement weather might keep away some of the mothers, and the aim this year is to always have every mother and teacher present. The time of next meeting will probably be the first clear day, but it will be announced in the papers.

Next week the members of the Woman's club, Calvin Crozier chapter, Wintrop Daughters and several other clubs are looking forward to pleasant meetings.

The members of the Baptist Sunday school had one of their pleasant instructive meetings at the church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The little ones sang and recited most creditably.

John A. Senn is hereby announced as a candidate for alderman from Ward 4 and will abide the rules of the Democratic primary.

ALDERMAN FOR WARD 5.

W. H. Hardeman is hereby announced as a candidate for re-election as alderman from Ward 5 and will abide the rules of the Democratic primary.

Sam C. Hiller is hereby announced as a candidate for alderman from Ward No. 5 and will abide the rules of the Democratic primary. Mr. Hiller has had experience in the working of roads and bridges and would be a valuable member of the city council.

Henry Brown is hereby announced as a candidate for alderman from Ward 5 and will abide the rules of the Democratic primary.

Death of Mrs. S. A. Riser.

Mrs. S. A. Riser, a former resident of Newberry, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Swittenberg, in Kingstree, on Tuesday morning. She had been in failing health for a long time and until about a month ago had been making her home with her daughter, Mrs. L. B. Aull, at Dyson.

Mrs. Riser was 76 years old. She was the daughter of Mr. James Moore, who lived in this county, in the Cannon Creek section, and she was born there and reared in the faith of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church. She had one brother who was wounded in the war between the sections and died of the wounds without reaching home. She also had three sisters, two of whom still survive. Mrs. Dr. Whaley, who died many years ago, and Mrs. Derrick of Leesville and Mrs. Cromer of North Carolina.

Her husband, the late Luther P. W. Riser, died some twenty years ago. He was a citizen of Newberry for many years before his death. Mr. and Mrs. Riser had ten children, four sons and six daughters, nine of whom survive. Mrs. Paul Johnstone, one of the daughters, died about ten years ago. The surviving children are: Mrs. L. B. Aull, Dyson; Mrs. LeRoy Lee, Kingstree; Mrs. J. W. Swittenberg, Kingstree; Miss Mary C. Riser, Anniston, Ala.; Miss Serena Riser, Columbia; Edward Riser, Woodford, Oklahoma; R. W. Riser, Savannah; Dr. L. A. Riser, Columbia; James Riser, Huntsville, Ala.

All of the children were present at the funeral except two sons, Edward and James.

The funeral was held from the Lutheran church in Newberry at 3 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. Edw. Fulenwider. Interment at Rosemont. The pallbearers were: Geo. B. Cromer, W. F. Ewart, John C. Goggans, S. J. Derrick, J. Y. McFall, E. M. Evans, Alan Johnstone.

Mrs. Riser was a good woman, loved and respected by all who knew her, and her children have the consolation of having had her with them for many more years than is allowed to many. She lived her three score and more than ten and saw all her children grow to manhood and womanhood and all doing well in this world.

Holiday Saturday.

The faculty of the college gives holiday on Saturday so that the students may attend the young people's convention which is to be held in Newberry at that time.

No Tough Meat at the Sanitary Market

It is tender and juicy and calls for more. Take a bite.

MOWER COMPANY ASSIGNS.

Late Thursday afternoon the C. & G. S. Mower Company made an assignment to H. H. Blease for the benefit of its creditors. This is one of the oldest and best known firms in Newberry, and it will be sad news to many of its friends to learn that it was forced to take this step. The firm has been in Newberry for more than forty years, first as D. Mower and then as C. and G. S. Mower and later as the C. and G. S. Mower company. For a long time it was the leading store in the dry goods and millinery line in the county.
